SAMUEL UNTERMYER

flays the Ku Klux Klan in speech in Hartford, Conn. He calls it "a strange and mediaeval eruption on our civic life," and refutes at length the recent charge of the Imperial Wizard that the Jews are not a productive people. He cites Jewish statistics in America and points to the rebuilding of Palestine as "best evidence of their genius for great constructive, productive accomplishment.

Bnai Brith Meeting

The Bnai Brith Lodge will meet Sunday afternoon, January 21, at 2.30 p.m., at the King Edward Hotel. At this meeting the new executive, elected by the members at their last regular meeting, will be installed in their respective offices. For the occasion Brother David Ruslander and Brother Israel Rumizen, of Buffalo, N.Y., will be present to act as the installing officers. It is expected also that Mr. S. W. Jacobs, K.C., M.P., of Montreal, will be a visitor at this meeting and will deliver an address.

Brother Ruslander is the chairman of the general committee, District No. 1, I.O.B.B., and Brother Rumizen is the president of Montefiore Lodge, No. 70, Buffalo; both are attorneys in Buffalo.

The program for this meeting also calls for the initiation of some 20 candidates for election as members of the lodge, and it is expected that some interesting announcements will be made by the president.

Editor,
CANADIAN JEWISH REVIEW:

Living here with a small Jewish community one certainly reads with pleasure about the wonderful progress the Jewish community of Toronto has made in the last ten years or so. There is one feature, however, I noticed that did not perhaps occur to others.

I had the honour of being secretary at one time or another of the Toronto Zionist Council, Old Folks' Kitchen (soup kitchen), the Associated Hebrew Charities, old Gemilath Chessed (Simcoe Street), the Talmud Torah (Simcoe Street) and many other Jewish organizations. Now I regret to state that in most of the above institutions the financial books were found by me in a most chaotic state—absolutely useless. I also had occasion to help audit the books of other charitable societies—the same story again. The books were shockingly inaccurate. Not that the people were dishonest, it was simply a case of carelessness. Might I suggest, therefore, that a board of Jewish chartered accountants be formed in Toronto with a view of letting the public know which charitable society is trustworthy?

Yours truly,
DR. A. G. VOLPE,

Editor,
CANADIAN JEWISH REVIEW:

Will you please assist me in locating Levi Simcha Hirshovitz or Shemuel Hirshovitz. Both are wanted by their relatives in Mariampole, from whom I received a letter to-day, asking me the whereabouts of the Hirshovitzes. There is a letter addressed to them. Let them apply at the above address. Feige and Rivkah Fein are in distress and wish to locate Hirshovitz.

Sincerely yours,
RABBI J. BERGER.

Goel Tzedek Food Sale

An attractively arranged food sale took place Thursday last in the Synagog chambers of the Goel Tzedek, University Avenue Synagog, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary. Due to the inclement weather many who were anxious to attend the sale, were deterred from coming. In spite of the obstacle the sale was a success. A substantial amount was realized which will go towards Sunday School improvements. The general convenors were Mrs. M. Soren and Mrs. L. Soren. Mrs. M. Keyfetz was general cashier. Mrs. Miller looked after the auctions and the decorations were under the able direction of Mrs. J. Selick.

On Monday, January 8, the English classes, held under the auspices of the Council of Jewish Women, were awarded the prizes won by them during the past term. Rabbi Berger acted as chairman. After his address came a reading by Miss Richter, followed by another reading by Sadie Lax. The chairman then called upon Mrs. M. Levy, president of the Council, to present the prizes. Mrs. Levy gave unstinted praise to the teachers and the pupils, congratulating them upon the progress already made and encouraging them to make even greater progress in the coming term. She then presented three prizes for written essays, one for oral composition, and one for attendance. The exercises closed with the singing of the Hatikvah and God Save the King.

The Beth Jacob Religious School

A jolly time was spent by the staff and pupils of the upper classes of the Beth Jacob Religious School, on Wednesday evening, January 11, when a sleighing party was held to Dundas. Following the drive, the party had lunch in the school rooms. Songs, humourous speeches, and toasts were delivered by the pupils. Games were played after supper. This long-to-be-remembered affair broke up with the children giving cheers for the various members of the staff, cheers for the Religious School and the school yell. The arrangements were handled by the pupils' own committee. Master Jack Rathkin was chairman, and Miss Dorothy Kates, treasurer. The Misses Etta and Jessie Levin and Messrs. Dave Robinson, Morris Goldblatt, and Ab. Walters were present and appeared to enjoy taking part in the games as much as the children themselves.

The Junior Congregation held services on Friday evening, January 12. Morris Liebovitz conducted the services in Hebrew. Philip Perlegut read a portion of the Bible in English. Rabbi Levin delivered the sermon and chose for his topic, the Biblical portion for the week, drawing comparison between events of the period between Joseph and Moses and the present. He urged the Junior Congregation to persevere in their self-appointed task and endeavour to obey the traditional laws of Judaism.

Rabbi Levin is one of the Congregation's most sincere and enthusiastic supporters and never fails to attend services, and one who is always willing to uphold them in their undertaking.

Successful from every point of view was the whist party and dance given by the Junior Congregation in the Beth Jacob Club rooms, on Sunday evening, for the purpose of raising funds for the Beth Jacob Religious School recently organized. Whist was played at thirty-five tables and prizes were given at each table. The following helped to make the affair a success: Mrs. Rose Levy, Misses Etta Levin, Maimie Robinson, Rose Halpern, Hilda Goldblatt, Goldie Robinson, Jessie Levin, Bella Goldblatt, Leah Lang, Bessie Frohman; Messrs. Dan Goodman, Joe Lang, Ed. Goodman, Ab. Walters, Bernard Hershman, Henry Lang, Ben Kulick and Dave Robinson.

Thanks are given to the following ladies for supplying cakes: Mesdames M. Grinblatt, F. Goldblatt, S. Levin, Reuben Levy, S. Needle, S. Takefman and Miss Ann Clavir, of Toronto; candy: Misses R. Hershman, Ann Clavir, Hilda Goldblatt, Mollie Robinson, Etta Levin, Rose Halpern, Bessie Schrieber, Nina Zola, Rose Halpern, Sara Siegel, Bella Liebovitch, Freda and Dorothy Kurtzman, Matilda Davidovitz, Eva Wright; cigars: Geo. Goldblatt. The president of the Junior Congregation, Dave Robinson, in welcoming the guests and thanking them for their patronage, briefly outlined the aspirations of activities of the Congregation, showing what it is accomplishing in the Friday night services and Bible study class and Religious School.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Lepofsky, Streetsville, is in town over the week-end, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Goldstein, Queen Street North.

Mr. Oscar Fareman, Montreal, is a visitor in town

Hadassah At-Home

Arrangements are rapidly being completed for the Hadassah At-Home. The affair will be held in the Zionist Building on Thursday evening, February 1st, and is in celebration of Palestine Arbor Day. All the Hadassah chapters are taking part under the convenorship of Mrs. Pollack. As a nucleus for an excellent program, Mrs. B. R. Brickner will give an address and several musical numbers have been arranged. No invitations are being issued and all members, their husbands and friends are expected to attend. The whole Zionist Building will be given over to Hadassah for that evening.

The At-Home is being held in accordance with a Hadassah custom, that is, to observe all Jewish festivals without exception. The Toronto Hadassah has to date never failed to fittingly celebrate Jewish holidays. A recent example was the Yarid, which was held last Chanukah. The At-Home will be furthermore in the nature of a get-together, where all Hadassah members can become acquainted with one another, thus cementing the bonds between the various chapters in the city. It will enable especially those new members of Hadassah who enrolled during Join Up Week, to meet one another.

Palestine Arbor Day or "Chamisho Osor Beshvat" is the New Year of the trees in Palestine. On that day trees are planted throughout the country, and a general celebration takes place.

THE ZIONIST BUILDING

The Hadassah council is planning a large informal dance for March 6th in the Arcadia. This dance has been arranged as a result of the decision to alter and redecorate the Zionist Building. The proceeds from the dance will provide a fund for this work. Hadassah is looking after the alterations.

Although the Zionist Building will remain under the control of the Zionist Council, it has been decided definitely that Hadassah will have the general supervision of the building.

THE DEBORAH CHAPTER

The Deborah Chapter of Hadassah is running a large informal dance on Thursday, January 25th, in the Masonic Temple. Proceeds from the dance will go towards carrying on general Hadassah work. A meeting of the chapter will be held next Tuesday evening in order to complete final arrangements for the affair.

As a result of a personal appeal by Miss Alice Seligsberg, Mr. Oscar Strauss, recently donated twenty thousand dollars to the American Hadassah for their relief work in Palestine. Mr. Strauss' original contribution was one thousand dollars.

Miss Seligsberg, who is the national chairman of the American Hadassah, was in this city last month to inaugurate the local Join Up Week, and addressed Toronto audiences on several occasions.

THE ROSE CHAPTER

The Rose Chapter is meeting next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. Helpert, Austin Terrace. Plans will be completed for the chapter's contribution to the At-Home program.

The Western Chapter meets next Monday afternoon at the Community House, the Miriam Chapter at the home of Mrs. Granovsky, and the Naomi Chapter at the home of Mrs. Rashkofsky, Kendal Ave.

Mr. S. Joffe and son, Bernard, of Chicago, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. Wasserman.

A dancing party was held in the Royal Connaught Hotel by Mr. Ed. Goodman in honour of Miss Nina Zola.

Mr. Jack Glass was a visitor in Toronto over the week-end.

Mr. J. Goldblatt and Miss Hilda Goldblatt have returned from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Levinson have returned from New York where they have been visiting their parents.

Temple Sisterhood Entertains

The Temple Sisterhood of Holy Blossom Congregation entertained over one hundred and fifty guests at a bridge given in its beautiful recreation rooms. The tea table was arranged with spring flowers, while other blossoms adorned the room. The winners received prizes. Any member, who is visiting in New York during the week January 18-24, may be invited to attend the convention of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods.

Y.M. and Y.W.H.A.

Membership Drive

During the week of January 20-28, inclusive, you are at one time or another going to be greeted with the question, "Are you a member of the 'Y'?". This week has been set aside as "Y" join week, and during this period every Jewish individual in Toronto will be presented with the question, "to join, or not to join."

The Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. is one of the most deserving institutions of your active membership and moral support in our fair city. It is the pinnacle of our youth's ambitions, the desire of our far-seeing and wise elders. To our young folks it spells a "home"; to our fathers and mothers it means protection for their young, a moral and physical influence superseded only by that of the immediate proximity of the fireside.

For many years the Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. actually struggled to make itself felt 'midst Toronto Jewry; to-day it is "Y" this, "Y" that, "Y" always. Why?

The answer is simple. Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. means something to Toronto, it means something to you. It will mean as much as Toronto wants it to mean, as much as you want it to mean. Because the Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. is an institution whose influence grows with numbers, whose power grows with support. And who would deny that the influence and power of a Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. can be anything but for good.

THE CANADIAN JEWISH REVIEW has repeatedly contained briefs of the activities of this important organization. They are proof of the great work being accomplished and prove the possibilities of what might be accomplished.

The Membership Campaign to be inaugurated by the "Y" is possibly the final one before the great Building Fund Drive to present Toronto with a magnificent Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. building, worthy of Jewish Toronto and to replace our present quarters at corner of Brunswick Avenue and College Street. It is with this end in view that the campaign is being undertaken and it is a common secret that as soon as the membership reaches the thousand mark, there are certain powerfully financial Jewish men who will make substantial donations towards such a fund.

But—the Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. must first reach the thousand membership mark. It must show our wealthy Jews that a Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. is desired by Jewish Toronto. The "Y" at present has much to offer you, and by your taking advantage of what is offered you by a membership in the organization, it indirectly means that the "Y" is coming nearer being able to offer you infinitely more than it can at present. By joining now it proves of compound benefit to you.

Toronto will surely not fail in its support of such a worthy institution as the Y.M. and Y.W.H.A., and we believe that you as an individual,, will not fail in your share by giving this mattter of a membership in the Y.M. and Y.W.H.A. your most serious and worthy consideration.

In conjunction with the membership campaign numerous specially prepared activities will be conducted. The building is at your disposal and a cordial invitation is extended to all. A full week of pleasures and surprises are in store for you. Look through the program and keep as many nights open as possible.

Saturday, January 20, dance to the music provided by the "Y" orchestra. Sunday, January 21, lecture by R. C. Harris, Commissioner of Works, subject, "Know Your City." Monday, January 22, smoker, boxing, wrestling, fencing, music and comedy galore. Tuesday, January 23, athletic night—gym. classes by business men, senior men, senior women, intermediate and juniors; the inter-club "Y" snooker tournament also commences on this night. Wednesday, January 24, basketball games as scheduled elsewhere in this paper, and the dance that follows. Thursday, January 25, big spread to all Y.M.H.A. athletics with speeches and presentations. Friday, January 26, an evening set aside for the young folks to bring their parents, and the parents to bring their offspring; the Rabbis will speak and the Chazonim will entertain. Saturday, January 27, dance with innovations. Sunday, January 28, the third debate of the inter-club series will take place, the Y.M.H.A. vs. the Herzl Club.

Y.," NEWS

Baseball

Nat Turofsky elected manager for the year of 1923, with Harry Freeman supervisor over baseball.

Bowling

The Dinges, Big Bugs, Artists, and Ironsides are all bunched for first place only two games separating the four teams for the first-half of the schedule. The girls' teams are also all running close, with the Boot and Shoe and Brandeis leading with 8 wins and 4 losses apiece.

Basketball

Saturday night, January 13, the Y.M.H.A. Juveniles journeyed to Central Y.M.C.A. and defeated the Central team 33-8. The losers, through lack of experience, were no match for the Hebrew boys who outwitted them at every stage of the game.

Earl Freeman, stellar defense player of the Juvenile "Y" team, did not play against the Central team. He is at present busy with his studies, but he will play again when his team goes into the semi-finals.

On Tuesday, January 16, the "Y" Ladies' team receive their first real test when they play the Stephenite Girls on the latter's floor.

Geo. Lister, basketball convenor of the Y.M.H.A., has been fortunate in securing the services of Morris Ginsberg, the captain of the Central Y.M.C.A. team, to relieve him of his duties with regard to coaching the Junior basketball team which will enable the former to give more time to the Juveniles.

On January 10, in the scheduled game between the Y.M.H.A. Junior team and the Redeemer Church the latter team failed to appear, the Y.M.H.A., therefore, winning the game by default. In order, however, not to disappoint the large number of spectators, the Juveniles played the Juniors.

Three good games are carded for Wednesday, January 24, at the "Y" gym. The first game, which starts at 7.45 p.m., brings together the Business Men's team against the Gumps, in a house basketball final. In their first meeting the Gumps managed to win by a few points. In the second game the "Y" Ladies will play their first league game at home when they meet the Beach Avenue Girls. The final game will bring together the Normal School and the Y.M.H.A. Juniors and a loss for the "Y" will mean a tie for group honours with the College A. C. Club. The usual dance will follow the basketball games.

Debating and Literary News

Sunday evening, January 14, the Rose Caplan Girls managed to beat the Hannah Girls in the second debate of the inter-club series. Miss R. Pechenik and Miss R. Shulman, representing the Rose Caplan Girls, argued for the affirmative, and Miss K. Bandler and Miss Lea represented the Hannah Girls for the negative. Mr. J. J. Glass officiated as chairman. The judges were Miss Mattie Levi, Mr. Irwin and Mr. J. Levy. Miss Houzer favoured the audience with a recitation.

Dances

The Saturday night dances are still continuing to grow in popularity. Last Saturday it almost seemed that the doors would have to be closed. The same orchestra will continue for the balance of the season so every one is assured of good music at the "Y" at all these dances.

Classes

Mr. Murray Bloem is now instructing the business men's class and never were there more business men on the floor on class nights. Business men's class starts promptly at 5.30, on Tuesdays.

Mr. Harry Freeman is taking the senior class and the turnout of members on class nights leaves very little to be desired.

Competent instructors have been provided for the ladies' classes, on Mondays and Wednesdays, the classes starting at 7.30 p.m. sharp, followed by group games, basketball and volleyball. The "Y" had arranged with an instructress to give the ladies' and girls' classes instruction in dance steps, but the classes are not quite large enough, so we would ask all lady members to turn out on time and more promptly so that we can make the ladies' part of the Y.M.H.A. more successful than it is at present.

Theatre

Just a reminder to leave February 12 open for the "Y" theatre party. The play, "Back to Our Nation," is one that everyone who has seen it talks about enthusiastically.

Boxing

The "Y" inter-club boxing tournament, scheduled for January 31, is bringing in entries thick and fast.

EMIL G. HIRSCH

LAST week there passed to the Academy on High, Emil G. Hirsch, rabbi and scholar in Israel.

Dr. Hirsch leaves a void which few of his colleagues in the liberal ministry can fill. He was not alone a great scholar and leader, but a personality the like of whom there is not another in the American rabbinate. Dr. Hirsch was born in the Grand Duchy of Luxemberg, May 22, 1852. He first studied in the public schools of the Duchy. When his father, Dr. Samuel Hirsch, a rabbi of liberal leanings, was called in 1866 to the ministry of the Reform Congregation, Keneseth Israel, in Philadelphia, his son, Emil, accompanied him to the United States and took up his studies there, graduating from the University of Pennsylvania in 1872. From 1872-1876 he studied in Germany at the Universities of Berlin and Liepzig, and prepared himself for the rabbinate in the "Hoch Schule für die Wissenschaft des Judenthums." In 1876 he received his Ph.D. degree and his rabbinical ordination.

He returned to America in 1877 and accepted a call to the Har Sinai congregation in Baltimore. A year later he went to Louisville where he ministered for two years and in 1880 Hirsch was called to the pulpit of Sinai Congregation, Chicago, where he served until his death, a period of forty-three years.

In 1892 Dr. Hirsch was appointed to the chair of rabbinical literature and philosophy in the University of Chicago, which position he held continuously until he passed away. He was active in the civic social and religious life of Chicago. He was president of the Chicago Public Library Association and editor of the Reform Advocate, one of the best Anglo-Jewish weeklies. His editorials were famous for their learning and their vitriolic style.

Hirsch represented and was the model of the new type of American rabbi. He was not only a scholar in the field of Jewish and secular literature, but a public leader and representative of his people.

Rabbi Hirsch was an ardent leader of American Reform Judaism. The son of a Reform rabbi, he carried on the tradition. His Reformism was based on cosmopolitanism and rationalism. Of Jewish nationalism, he was a bitter opponent. His outlook was that the Jew differs from his neighbour only in religion, and that every other distinction of race and psychology appertaining to the Jew must not be permitted to survive.

It was from this standpoint that Hirsch molded his reforms. His synagog became transformed into a temple in which the scrolls of the law were never read. The Saturday services were changed to Sunday services, the prayers were read in English.

On one occasion it is said that even the High Holy Days were postponed a few days because Dr. Hirsch had not arrived home from Europe. In a word, Hirsch was the product of a cultural and intellectual outlook, which has since become passé. Cosmopolitanism has given way to an era of nationalism and intra-nationalism. Autocracy has been replaced by democracy and a newer and broader emphasis on the place of psychology and the emotions has come about in the life of reason. This re-valuation in the intellectual tock place during his lifetime.

Dr. Hirsch saw this transformation come about, yet with all his intellectual acumen he could not change. He remained, therefore, outside of the pale of all those tremendous movements which have shaken world Jewry in the last twenty-five years.

Hirsch was a man of passions, impulsive, quick to become enthusiastic, yet just as ready to drop the cause he enthused over. He was a prolific journalist and wielded a sharp pen that was cynical and cutting in its sarcasm. As an orator he was well known. His oratory was unique in its fine phrasings and incisiveness. He was courageous and outspoken in his criticism, and denunciatory of injustice, prejudice and social sin in every form. He was a seeker after the truth and loved things that were genuine. Though a Reform rabbi he was yet the severest critic Reform Judaism had.

He commanded the whole-hearted respect, admiration and love not only of his own congregation, which is one of the wealthiest and most prominent in America, but of all intellectual Jewry. As a defender of the Jew and Judaism, especially against our maligners, he had no equal. "Dr. Hirsch's brain contained more knowledge than that of anyone I have ever met." This was the tribute paid to his broad scholarship by no less a person than Dr. Wm. D. Harper, former president of the University of Chicago.

Such a man the city of Chicago last week bore to his final rest. Jew and Gentile stopped to pay him tribute. Every time a man of this type passes away it seems as if another one of the last beautiful flowers left blooming in the Jewish garden is being plucked. Where are the buds that promise to replace these choice spirits? In America there is a very real danger that the garden will soon be flowerless.

POGROMS IN AMERICA

ROSEWOOD is the pretty name of a little town in "peaceful" Florida. The other day a riot broke out there between whites and blacks. It was caused through the alleged attack on a white woman by a Negro, who, it was believed, was hiding in the Negro section of Rosewood. Without waiting for the officers of the law to do their duty, a pack of white men started out to apprehend the Negro. During the hunt in the Negro section the trouble started. The blacks barricaded themselves in a house and shooting commenced. After the fracas four Negroes and two white men were found killed. Following the shooting the whole Negro section of Rosewood was set on fire and almost destroyed. The Negro population fled into the woods to hide from the whites. Hatred and passion are still running high and the incident is not yet closed.

The officers of the law should have performed their duty. But the anti-Negro spirit—a spirit which is readily whipped into the fury of lynching—is so prevalent in the South, that the law and its authorized agents are flouted on the slightest provocation.

A recent report published by the Tuskegee Institute states that there were fifty-seven Negro lynchings in the United States during the last year and that the most of these lynchings took place in that glorious commonwealth, Texas, which sent an avowed Klanner to represent it in Washington.

It seems hardly believable that these figures relate to the United States of America, whose population calls itself civilized, and more especially to the South where one even finds pretences at chivalry and culture. An anti-lynching bill, recently introduced into the United States Congress never came out of committee. Even if the bill had seen the light of day the Southern representatives are sufficiently powerful politically to have killed it, and it is very doubtful if the President would have signed the bill had it passed.

The Negro situation in America and particularly in the South has been a very acute one, and is becoming rapidly more so as the Negro attains education and economic power. It is a problem that demands the best thought that America can command.

That there is another aspect to this problem which concerns the Jews and other racial and religious minorities arises from the fact that in a country where Anti-Semitism is growing, and organizations such as the Klan exist, where mob feeling is easily aroused, and lynchings follow, there is the possibility of pogroms on Jews, Catholics and other minority groups. It has been said by cynics that the Negro has been the buffer and the scapegoat for the Jew in America. Regarded as on a lower social level than the Jew, the mob venom is first wreaked on the heads of the blacks.

Is it possible that the pogroms against the Jew of the European hooligans will soon find their counterpart in free America? There is only one difference between the pogroms in Poland and those in the United States. The former are perpetrated with the knowledge and ofttimes with the consent of the government, whereas in the United States this is never the case. A pogrom, nevertheless, is a pogrom, and only the organized force of the government can make it impossible. Are the police and other authorities in the Southern States doing this? We believe not, for it is inconceivable that Negro lynchings and riots would be so prevalent if the police were not negligent.

There is only one way to prevent pogroms, riots and lynchings, and that is to arouse public opinion against them. The State must set the example by meting out the strictest punishment against those misguided and malicious elements who take the law into their own hands and who set themselves up as "invisible governments" to

A quiet revolution is going on in Toronto---

Day by day and in every way the family wash problem is bothering fewer and fewer Toronto housewives, because of "Semi-Finished." It is the laundry method that does all the washing, and practically all the ironing—just leaves the fussy corners for your own iron. It costs less and does more than any other family wash method short of complete laundry. Phone to-day.

REFLECTIONS OF A POST-GRADUATE STUDENT

By way of explanation, this and the subsequent contributions in this series, are the observations and reflections of a student who has lived in the university six years, and who now, in the peace of his post-graduate period, feels that he has something to say about student life here, and about the student attitude toward life, that is sufficiently at variance with popular undergraduate opinion to be worth saying.

"What is wrong with the Jewish student body?" The question causes a smile. It is so familiar. It has all the characteristics, the caterwauling piety, the lachrymose benevolence, the foggy-mindedness of the bulk of undergraduate thinking on affairs such as this. Characteristically, the very form of the question arises out of kind, but unwarranted, assumptions. It is assumed that the Jewish student "body" possesses, so to speak, a higher spiritual potential than it at present manifests, and that by meetings and by lectures, this supposedly dammed flood of ennobling spirituality can be released. We can only shake our heads. This spiritual treasure trove does not exist for our own benefit. It must be stated again and again, that we are no better than the "goyim" beside whom we live. Claims to superiority bespeak a blindness to facts, which is the result of uncritical acceptance of several centuries' accumulation of conceit.

Foregoing tempting specific comparisons, which can only be invidious, let us look to ourselves and dispassionately examine the evidence. We have two hundred and fifty students, the great majority in the professional schools of dentistry, law and medicine. This fact alone disposes of the idea that our men come to the university primarily on account of an insatiable curiosity. They come because they or their parents think it will be easier for them to make a living by means of a polite profession, than by working at a machine or with a grip on the road. To press this further would be to belabour the obvious.

Granting this, without settling on it any colour of good or bad, let us pass to an examination of the collective achievements of our students in the last half dozen years. A Toronto Hebrew Students' Association rose, declined and fell. The several attempts at its resurrection also failed. The local Menorah Society maintains a weak, perfunctory, emasculate existence. To our credit we do have two, or possibly more, since they are now the vogue with us, Greek letter fraternities as evidence of a strong creative spirit, of a vigorous originality!!

Tabulation of the number of individual achievements would give an equally ungratifying result. For every first-class honour student we have had several writers of supplemental examinations. Enough! enough!

We made, with the help of undergraduates, a careful examination of the list of our two hundred and fifty "Tachshitum," and were unable to make up a list of even fifty students, who, in addition to being zealous and conscientious, may be said to have more than a perfunctory interest in their studies, who may be said to be utilizing the opportunities afforded by undergraduate experience to broaden their outlook on life and to cultivate intellectual interests outside the curriculum—in a word, who conform to that type of student which is the university's contribution to the life of the nation. To these the Menorah can speak with some justifiable hope of a satisfactory response, though, here too, it must broaden its scope. To the great remainder, talk of ideals, of an intellectual critique in pioneer work, and as such must be expected to be hard, and in view of the manifold dangers, may advisedly be left to older men, whose ideals have survived some experience.

—"H." in The U. of T Menorah.

To judge Roumania by the pictures of her beautiful queen would be to arrive at the conclusion that it is a country of happy, graceful women in flowing draperies and jewels. It can't all be so fine though, else why should the Roumanian envoy at Washington always be denying reports of attacks on Jews, especially when excessive rowdyism and anti-Semitic disturbances cause the Roumanian press itself to denounce the government for conniving at hooliganism?

SOBEL—In memory of Fannie Sobel, who died on January 18, 1922.
We wish it were within our power
To express our sincere regrets,
How we mourn your untimely departure,
From the ones that loved you best.
Many a stray tear is dropped,
And many a sob we drown,
Although there lacked the family relationship
The sorrow was like our own.

Winnipeg

Winnipeg readers may phone their news items for insertion in the "Canadian Jewish Review" to Sherbrook 4724, or mail them to 200 Balmoral Street, Winnipeg.

The official opening of the new Hebrew Free School, corner of Magnus Avenue and Andrews Street, was conducted Sunday afternoon, January 7, in the presence of a large gathering of the Jewish community. Rabbi J. L. Slotnick, of Montreal, who came to Winnipeg for the purpose, conducted the dedication services.

Rabbi Slotnick, in his dedication address, spoke briefly of the importance of the school. He emphasized the necessity of the Jewish people in supporting such institutions in view of the fact that the Jews were re-establishing themselves in Palestine. In order that the Jewish tongue should be the official language, it was necessary that the Jewish youth should be educated in the Jewish language. This should be, he said, so that a generation of people may be raised, who, in event of their return to their native land, would be able to speak the language and conduct its affairs.

Rabbi H. J. Samuels and Chief Rabbi Kahonovitch also spoke to the gathering, soliciting the support of the Jewish community.

Much interest and enthusiasm were exhibited when Mr. H. L. Weidman rose to address the gathering. This gentleman was one of the fathers of the institution, and has been for many years the chairman of the board of education. Very few have shown the zeal and energy for the furtherance of the study of the Hebrew tongue more than he, who is an ardent advocate for its use in every-day life.

In the opening of the school a rather interesting method was adopted. With the idea of raising funds for the institution, the key with which the doors were unlocked, was put up for auction and sold to the highest bidder, who proved to be Mr. A. W. Myers, whose bid was $700.00; as a consequence he had the honour of declaring the building open. Other privileges were also sold and were the means of raising the amount under the auction to $2,500.00. Henry E. Goldin, president of the Jewish school board, presided over the opening ceremoney. He was assisted by S. A. Berg, vice-president, Michael Tessler, treasurer, and I. D. Russen, secretary.

Entertainment was provided by pupils of the Free School, who sang many songs in their own language. Selected recitations in Hebrew were also rendered very well by some of the pupils. Michael Maroff, violinist, assisted in the program.

Mayor S. J. Farmer, M.L.A., was unable to be present and sent a letter expressing his regret.

The school has accommodation for four hundred pupils and contains six class-rooms and a large assembly hall. The total cost of the building was $40,000. It is the second orthodox Jewish school in Winnipeg, the first having been built twelve years ago at the corner of Flora Avenue and Charles Street, with accommodation for a thousand pupils and which has now become inadequate.

Shaarey Zedek Sisterhood

Among the activities of the Shaarey Zedek Sisterhood reported at the monthly meeting was the very successful annual Chanukah party, given under the joint convenorship of the Entertainment and House Committees for thirty Jewish mothers and one hundred and twenty-five children, who are looked after by the Social Welfare Board. After enjoying a most bountiful feast of goodies, generously contributed by the members of the Sisterhood, they were treated to a delightful entertainment by some of the children assisted by Miss Marguerite Narvolansky at the piano, and readings by Miss Minnie Portigal and Master Hyman Astrof. On leaving, everyone received car fare and gifts, the children each a pair of stockings, a pair of mitts, a bag of candy and toys, and the mothers and older girls, handkerchiefs and books.

To meet the expenses in connection with the Chanukah party a home-cooking sale was held in the Assembly Hall of the Synagog, Wednesday afternoon, January 10, and a little over $81.00 was raised. The very cordial hearing given to our speaker guest, Mrs. R. F. McWilliams, president of the Women's Canadian Club, on her recent visit to Europe, and the eagerness with which the dainty foods were bought, showed very clearly that the members of the Sisterhood enjoy a feast for the mind as well as a feast for the body.

Montefiore Club

At a smoker held in the Montefiore Club rooms on Sunday evening, January 7, which was very well attended, an interesting address on "Zionism" was given by Mr. Simon Abrahamson. Later in the evening a presentation of a handsome club bag was made to Mr. Montague Stahl, who recently resigned the presidency after three years of service. A successful snowshoe tramp was held on Wednesday last when over fifty enthusiastic snowshoers took part in the tramp, and wound up at the Montefiore Club rooms where an orchestra furnished the dance music. The Club has, in the past week, received quite a number of new applications for membership.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kopstein, of Montreal, who have been the guests of Mr. Kopstein's mother, Mrs. I. Kopstein, Powers Avenue, left the city Sunday, January 7, for New York, from where they will sail for Europe on the Homeric, on January 20.

Mr. Harry Ginsberg, Balmoral Place, arrived home Sunday, January 7, having spent the past few weeks in Regina, Sask.

Mrs. B. Levi, Lincoln Apartments, entertained a few friends at bridge Tuesday afternoon January 9, in honour of Mrs. S. Cohen, Canora, Sask. The guest of honour was the recipient of a very dainty gift and Mrs. S. Robinson won the prize. Later, tea was served at a prettily appointed table.

Miss Rose Shapira entertained Tuesday evening, January 9, in honour of Miss Mary Beberman, Brandon, Man., who left the city this week for her home. An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and music, and later a dainty buffet supper was served.

Mrs. Louis Green, St. Johns, N.B., announces the engagement of her daughter, Alice, to Albert Lyone, of this city. The marriage will take place shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Martins, Wildron Apartments, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mr. H. A. Wodlinger, Leask, Sask., is a visitor in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Robin, Salter Street, announce the engagement of their second daughter, Sara, to Mr. Jack Schwartz.

The Girls' Auxiliary of the Jewish Orphanage, held their monthly social at the home, Matheson Avenue, Sunday evening, January . A large crowd gathered to enjoy the dancing, for which a splendid orchestra was in attendance, under the leadership of Mr. Harry Stein. Later in the evening those present adjourned to the library where refreshments were served, and then returned to the auditorium where dancing was resumed until midnight.

Montreal

There will be produced early in March a little operetta called "The Pennant," the proceeds of which will go towards the Social Service Fund of Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood. Mrs. A. Synder and Mr. Rupert Caplan are directing the musical play. Among those who are taking principal parts are: Miss Hazel Hoffman, Miss Esther Pinsler, Miss Esther Asner, Mrs. J. Aron, Mr. Jack Klein, Mr. Carl Lewis, Mr. Hy. Senian. A complete list of those forming the chorus will be announced later.

The officers and board of trustees of Temple Emanu-El have been long considering a fitting and appropriate celebration of the Fortieth Anniversary of the founding of Temple Emanu-El. They feel that the birth of Temple Emanu-El constituted an epoch in the life of the Jewish community in Montreal and its growth in influence and prestige has redounded to the benefit of the whole community. It was therefore thought fitting that this celebration take the form of an anniversary ball in which the whole community might be included. This anniversary ball will take place on Monday evening, February 12, at the Mount Royal Hotel. The issue of tickets has been limited to 125 couples, so that reservations had better be made at once. Mr. Clarence Michaels is chairman of the ticket committee. Mrs. Gustave Fischel and Mrs. Geo. Blumenthal are lady convenors of tickets.
